

Kingdom of Atlantia Letter of Decision, APRIL, 2013

Dame Hróðný Rognvaldsdóttir, Golden Dolphin Herald of Atlantia, sends balmy autumnal greetings to her fellow heralds. Greetings from Golden Dolphin to all who read this! Here is one of my shortest letters, consisting of one submission.

ACCEPTANCES

Raven's Cove – resubmitted badge (Award of the Black Gull) (Fieldless) A raven within and conjoined to an annulet sable.

Returned by Laurel for redrawing on the July 2013 letter, we submit the original depiction of the badge, as the Laurel return stated, "This badge is returned for the orientation of the raven blurring the difference between palewise and bendwise. In this case, the badge was redrawn between its original submission to kingdom and its submission to Laurel. The submitter should be aware that the original drawing was preferable and would have been registerable."

in service,
Hróðný
